R.E.S.P.E.C.T.²

RELATIONSHIP EMPOWERMENT for STUDENTS, PARENTS, EDUCATORS & COMMUNITY THROUGH THEATRE

What teachers said about R.E.S.P.E.C.T.² performances and what they liked best:

- The way the program gave the students a look into their own behaviors.
- The relative subject matter.
- You kept the students' attention during the discussion by changing speakers and topics.
- Flexibility of actors to become children by their actions and language
- Students and staff continue commenting on how beneficial this program was! It was very well done, and we enjoyed it.
- Even our kindergarten students were attentive and understood the message.
- The actors' energy!
- It was a great play. The kids paid close attention! Thank you!
- We love when you come!
- This is a situation that does occur at school
- Well planned, well rehearsed, great job!
- The message carried through loud and clear
- Powerful message for all to hear
- It was all done very well and professionally. The actors were great at being at the kid's level.
- The play was very good, but made better by the discussions afterwards.
- Very age appropriate
- The effectiveness of the characters; very clear
- Personal stories and examples
- The support and materials were wonderful!!
- It was ideally suited to our needs
- The kids loved it and learned.
- It was excellent and covered very pertinent information.
- Very good acting
- The escalation of the problem had a major impact on students.
- Professionalism of actors.
- That race or sex (gender) was not an issue.
- The storyline. The children could easily relate
- It really hits home
